

HURDLES

HEADING OFF TO COLLEGE IS AN EXCITING MILESTONE, ONE THAT HELPS PREPARE YOUNG ADULTS FOR CAREER SUCCESS.

Unfortunately, way too many of our state's high school graduates face daunting obstacles in their pursuit of higher education. Lack of preparation, surging enrollments and soaring tuitions are making the dream of college increasingly out of reach for many.

It's time to reverse this abysmal trend — and ensure all of Washington's students have the preparation and opportunity to pursue post-secondary education so more jobs in our state can go to the college graduates in our state.

Join us in reminding our state's elected officials of their commitment to maintain funding for higher education. It is critically important to job growth and the overall strength of our economy— for the Greater good.
